When you visit Darwin, you are privileged to visit the heart of Australia's unique Indigenous culture. One-third of the Territory's population is Indigenous, so Darwin and the Territory's regional and community art centres offer the best of contemporary and traditional art, while Darwin hosts the annual Telstra National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Art Awards each August. Wander from gallery to gallery, and you will start to appreciate the many regional cultures, economies and art forms.

TIWI ART NETWORK

Address: Shop 6 Air Raid Arcade, 35 Cavenagh St Darwin
Contact: 08 8941 3593
Website: www.tiwiart.com
Gallery Hours: By appointment only

The Tiwi Art Network is a not-for-profit Aboriginal organisation. It is an alliance of three art centres on the Tiwi Islands (100 km north of Darwin) - Jilamara Arts & Crafts, Munupi Arts & Crafts and Tiwi Design. The purpose of the network is to promote Tiwi art nationally and internationally. You can visit the Darwin office to view a small range of the artwork from the islands and to book a place on the one-day tour to the art centres. If you are an Indigenous art lover, then this is an ideal tour. To celebrate the Darwin Festival and Telstra Art Awards, we will be holding a special exhibition named Yirrajirima murrakupuni ngawurranimarri (three places coming together) from Friday 11 August to Wednesday 16 August at Shop 1/31 Smith St Mall, Darwin.

KAREN BROWN GALLERY

Address: NT House 1/22 Mitchell Street
Contact: 08 8981 9985
Email: gallery@karenbrowngallery.com
Website: www.karenbrowngallery.com

Gallery Hours: 9.30am – 5pm Monday to Friday, 10am – 2pm Saturday, and Sundays by appointment

Karen Brown Gallery, which has been based in Darwin for over 15 years, is committed to representing fine Australian art. The gallery is located in Northern Territory House on the corner of Knuckey and Mitchell Streets. A leader in the industry, Karen Brown Gallery has a primary role of discovering, nurturing and representing Territory artists locally, nationally and internationally. The Gallery's vision is to provide the best quality artwork and unique art experiences for their clients. The gallery runs a schedule of exhibitions, sources art for clients and maintains a stockroom for represented and selected artists.

FRAMED - THE DARWIN GALLERY

Address: 55 Stuart Highway, Darwin
Contact: 08 8981 2994
Fax: 08 8941 0883
Website: www.framed.com.au
Email: framed@framed.com.au

Gallery Hours: 9am – 5.30pm Monday to Saturday, 11am – 4pm Sunday and Public Holidays, or by appointment

The most unique art gallery in Australia is here – in Darwin! Australian art, Indigenous art, sculpture, jewellery and craft are all on offer here at Framed – The Darwin Gallery, an Australian gallery for Australian artists. Creative displays and aesthetic use of gallery space enhances the art and craft, allowing clientele an uncluttered private viewing. Framed offers arts and crafts that are collectable investments (Blackman, Boyd, Nolan, Lofty Nadjamerrek, Kathleen Petyarre, Robert Juniper, Margaret Woodward) of great diversity (Silvio Apponyi sculptures, Alan Williams wooden boxes, Diane Appleby jewellery, Kathrin McMiles pottery, Jerome Lyons tribal instruments) and in keeping with the latest in vogue decorations (Michael Taylor leather masks, Glen Manning ceramic sculptures) while maintaining a high quality across all price ranges.

MANINGRIDA ARTS & CULTURE DARWIN

Address: 1/32 Mitchell St Darwin
(Ground Floor of the Crowne Plaza building)
Phone: 08 8981 4122
Fax: 08 8981 9166
Email: mward@maningrida.com

Gallery Hours: 9am – 5pm Monday to Friday, 9am – 3pm Saturday, or by appointment

Maningrida Arts & Culture is one of Australia's largest Aboriginal artists' co-operatives. It is one of about 50 Aboriginal-owned arts centres in remote and regional Australia that affirms and promotes the value of local culture and aims to maximise financial returns to artists. It focuses on sales, marketing and supporting the production of bark paintings, carved wooden sculpture, fibre craft, prints, necklaces and items of material culture. Located in the north central Arnhem Land settlement township of Maningrida (about 360 kilometres east of Darwin), Maningrida Arts & Culture was established in 1967 and represents about 700 artists. Since 2004 Maningrida Arts & Culture has owned and operated its own successful retail outlet in the centre of Darwin, highlighting the organisation's commercial as well as cultural sophistication. The works are thoughtfully and respectfully displayed and range from inexpensive items through to more serious collector pieces.

MUSEUM AND ART GALLERY OF THE NORTHERN TERRITORY

Address: Conacher Street, Bullocky Point, Darwin
Contact: 08 8999 8264

Gallery Hours: 9am – 5pm Monday to Friday, 10am – 5pm Saturday, Sunday and Public Holidays, closed Christmas Day, Boxing Day, New Years Day and Good Friday.

The Museum and Art Gallery of the Northern Territory features the region's art, natural history and culture with exhibitions on Aboriginal art and material culture, visual arts, craft, Southeast Asian art and material culture, NT history and maritime archaeology and natural history. The Gallery of Indigenous Art introduces visitors to many of the different stylistic traditions of Aboriginal art that exist in the Northern Territory and includes both classic and innovative artworks. A cross section of the permanent collections is presented in the Gallery with paintings, works on paper and three-dimensional items. The 23rd Telstra National Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Art Award will be at the Museum between August 11 and October 22, 2006.

GALLERY PHILIP NEVILLE

Address: 2/2 Harriet Place, Darwin
Contact: 08 8942 2600 or 0419 843111
Email: mail@galleryphilipneville.com.au
Website: www.galleryphilipneville.com.au

Gallery hours: 10am – 5pm, Tuesday to Saturday and by appointment Sunday to Monday.

Situated on the edge of Darwin's central business district, Gallery Philip Neville (GPN) opened in March 2004 with the intention of providing Darwin with an innovative and diverse art space. GPN represents a select group of emerging and established artists, and has a strong commitment to introducing interstate artists to Darwin while supporting local artists through exhibition opportunities. GPN works specifically with Indigenous art centres in regional areas to support new and emerging Aboriginal artists as they establish and promote their ideas and bodies of work. We act as a conduit to artists, aiming to assist collectors in their choice of art investments and to increase accessibility to contemporary art in the growing creative market that is the Northern Territory.

MASON GALLERY

Address: Shop 7 /21 Cavenagh St, Darwin NT
Contact: 08 8981 9622
Fax: 08 8941 7699
Web: www.masongallery.com

24HR ART – THE NT CENTRE FOR CONTEMPORARY ART

Address: Vimy Lane Parap NT
Contact: 08 8981 5368
Email: 24hrart@24hrart.org.au
Website: www.24hrart.org.au

Gallery hours: 10am - 4pm Wednesday to Friday, 10 – 2pm Saturday

24 HR Art aims to provide an opportunity to interact with contemporary visual arts by supporting and promoting diverse contemporary art practices. Each year the program consists of exhibitions, interdisciplinary and multimedia projects, emerging and established artists, curated and artist-initiated projects, artist talks, themed forums and professional development workshops. Upcoming exhibitions include Noktörne between August 4 and September 9, a contemporary and customary Indigenous exhibition that explores the themes of nightfall, including ceremony, ritual and legend. A Stitch in Time by Aly De Groot, who won the 2005 Freedman Foundation scholarship, uses plant materials and contemporary basket making techniques to make wearable artwork.
