Live Music at Casuarina Library

Friday lunchtimes 12 pm – 1 pm

2 October – Kim Orchard

Kim Orchard set out many moons ago to sound like Bob Dylan, and along the way discovered his own style and voice with honest, witty songs backed up by sweet folk/blues-inspired guitar work. In the words of MusicNT.com.au, "Kim Orchard may be modest but his talent certainly isn't".

9 October - Ali Tapper

Ali Tapper is a vocalist and multi-instrumentalist who crosses the breadth of musical diversity, and maintains intelligence and quality in all she sets her abilities to. From operatic performances with the Darwin Symphony Orchestra and jazz classics with the NT Music School Band to performing solo a multitude of jazz, blues, folk and rock and her own warm and unique style and composition, Ali is a Darwin performer not to be missed

16 October - Aly de Groot

Miss Mental, who is known in Darwin as the front woman/singer/songwriter for all girl four piece, Elemental, is one rootsy mama who brings her visual arts background to the stage alongside her original tunes which weave tales of travel, love, trials and intrigue.

23 October – Julie Andreau

Local singer/songwriter Julie Andreau believes that love is the only way forward, and that everyone on the planet has a story and someday, someone is going to want to hear it. Her songs feature a hiphop/pop element, with a modern rock edge that is dynamic and captivating.

30 October – Mark Hilton

Mark Hilton performed live in Melbourne for a number of years, playing guitar and keyboards with The Philosopher's Stone and The Naturals. In 2007 he moved to Darwin and enjoyed the eclectic music scene, playing local venues, appearing at the Darwin Show and doing ABC radio appearances.
