Celebrating Children's Week

Children's Week is an annual event celebrated nation wide during the fourth week in October. This year Children's Week is about taking time out to have fun as a family and enjoying your children as they explore new experiences.

Darwin City Council encourages parents and carers with young children to come and enjoy the Free Family Fun Morning this Wednesday 28 October from 9.00am to 12.00 pm at the Jingili Water Gardens.

Children can get their faces painted, pat some animals, play games, jump on the jumping castle, create some wonderful master pieces, listen to story telling, and dance along with Lindy Loo.

At 10.30am, the Lord Mayor Graeme Sawyer will be officially launching Children's Week with Ally Mills, Children's Commissioner - Howard Bath and well known media personality and children's advocate, Charlie King.

The Northern Territory Government is providing free public transport to and from the event. To access free transport, simply advise the driver you are attending the Family Fun Morning for Children's Week.
